

Instructions

1. CV

- (1) In the "Education" column, please list all post-high school educational attainment. In the case of a graduate degree, please indicate the main subject.
- (2) In the "Research and Professional Experience" column, please list the title of the position, the name of the department, research division, and medical department of the applicant's affiliation.
- (3) For overseas study, please state the period, name of the host institution, and title of position, etc.
- (4) For academic activities, please provide the name of the academic society and position, etc., to which you belong.
- (5) All dates should be listed in Western calendar year.

2. Publications list

- (1) If you have obtained an ORCID ID, please list it in the box below your name.
- (2) Please list in chronological order from the earliest year of publication, with numbers 1, 2, 3, ..., for each category such as English original, Japanese original, etc.
- (3) For peer-reviewed papers, please provide the title of the article or book, author(s), journal name, volume, first and last page, year of publication, and for original papers, review articles, and case reports, the most recent Impact Factor (IF: number provided by Clarivate Analytics) and number of citations (CI: number compiled by SCOPUS). As long as the above items are listed, it is acceptable to rearrange the order of the items or to add necessary items.
- (4) If there are co-authors, please enter their names in the order listed and underline their names. Responsible authors should be marked with an asterisk (*).
- (5) Please exclude items that are in the process of being submitted. For items that are scheduled to be published or are currently in print, please attach the publisher's decision letter.
- (6) Please mark the key papers to be submitted (up to 10 papers) and indicate that number in the paper copies.

(7) Please mark the number of the dissertation with ©.

(8) For h-index, please also include the search source (Scopus, Web of Science, etc.).

3. Others

(1) Please use word-processing software to fill up all the information on your CV except for your name.

(2) If you need more space, please add it.